

EXPLOITATION OF CHILDREN AND YOUTH IN THE WORK FORCE

Present Missouri statutes do not appropriately protect young people from employment detrimental to their mental and physical health and social and educational growth. Missouri Congress of Parents and Teachers encourage the efforts of parents, educators, students, community leaders and businesses to seek adequate legislation and enforcement to protect vulnerable child workers and to provide education regarding the exploitation of children and youth in the work force.

Adopted 1993