

HUMAN RELATIONS

- WHEREAS, In appreciation of our fellowman enriches life for each member of the human family; and
- WHEREAS, The Missouri PTA recognizes that brotherhood is a gift of God, but it is not enjoyed unless each person takes advantage of it; and
- WHEREAS, Knowledge about each other is the basis for understanding and for friendship; and
- WHEREAS, Children are known to adopt the attitudes nurtured in their homes by their parents, given to them by other adults with whom they come in contact and by their peers; therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That the Missouri PTA encourages all units, councils, and districts to present programs which will enhance the understanding of all people and will encourage the fostering of good feeling so that people will be for people, and children will be the beneficiaries of a peaceful, productive world.
