

JUNIOR HIGH PARENT TEACHER CONFERENCES

- WHEREAS, Young people experience greater changes in structure of their school day when going from elementary to junior high school; and
- WHEREAS, Young people, at this stage of their development, experience major changes in their physiological and emotional growth; and
- WHEREAS, Parent teacher conferences on the elementary level have created a more satisfactory learning environment; therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That the Missouri Congress of Parents and Teachers its member units and councils encourage their school districts to hold parent teacher conferences during the junior high school year.