

Missouri PTA Student Safety Award

MAIL TO: Missouri PTA Office, PO Box 30545, Columbia, MO 65205

DEADLINE: Application must be postmarked no later than August 31

PTA units and councils promote safety education and awareness among students and their families. The purpose of the Student Safety Award is to honor an outstanding individual student who either contributed to the safety of another person(s) or was involved in promoting a safety program. PTA units and councils recognizing such an individual will receive a certificate of recognition, a check in the amount of $150.00 (one hundred and fifty dollars) and be announced at the Annual Award Ceremony at the Missouri PTA Convention.

Please complete all questions on the application below. On another piece of paper, please include a brief summary that describes the circumstances or the program to be considered as we select the Student Safety Award winner. The program or heroic effort must have taken place in the 12 months preceding the September 1 deadline. A selection committee composed of Missouri PTA Board of Managers members will review all applications.
